

TALENT SHOW

GUIDELINES & SCHEDULE

All Students Must Abide by Guidelines to Participate in the Show

Participation Requirements

- Students must attend “auditions” on Monday, April 3 @ 3:15pm and act should be 50% complete with music, choreography, and direction.
- Students need to be able to attend all rehearsals AND the mandatory dress rehearsal.
- Singing acts should use karaoke music or live accompaniment.
- Kindergarten & TK Students are invited to participate as group acts only. Duets & Solo acts are not permitted. Parents must accommodate kinders to all rehearsals.
- Lip-syncing is not allowed unless accompanied by a dance routine.
- Students may perform in 1 act. Additional acts may be approved based on the number of applicants.
- All acts will have a time limit of 90 seconds.
- Registration MUST be completed by end of day on Friday, March 31 at srepta.com/talentshow.

Rehearsals

- Performers are expected to concentrate on their acts during rehearsals; inappropriate behavior will not be tolerated. A book and/or homework are required at each rehearsal.
- Every effort will be made to rehearse the youngest students first and proceed through the rehearsal according to grade levels.
- Students must check in at the beginning of each rehearsal. Students may go home once they are finished rehearsing but need to check out first.

Music & Song Submission

- You must trim and prepare your own music as a digital audio file. Music must be trimmed to 90 seconds or less before submitting. Ask a tech savvy friend to help!
- Music files must be audio only. No video files can be accepted.
- Links to online music will not be accepted.
- Email your music to talentshow@srepta.com by the registration deadline.

Do Good. Be Kind.

Performing isn't easy even when you've got mad talent! We WILL NOT tolerate anyone showing anything less than positive support for others.
